Pulse "Baby Beats" Series heart of the infant

All the milestones of the first year! Who experiences so many but an infant? Know the joy of capturing those precious eyes, those first smiles, and that oh so tender skin. Each Baby Beats series includes the three sessions listed below.

Love Me Newborn

These types of images capture the heart's bond between parent and child, the fleeting moments of a newborn's first few weeks. Your scent, your touch, your warmth, all that they know is held in these first images. Typically these shots are taken with mom and dad clothed in long sleeve black thus highlighting the infant's tender body and skin tone. Your baby will be bare, in a diaper with a diaper cover, or in a cloth diaper.
